Finding ways to inspire the public to take part in activities that will improve safety, economic viability, sustainability, and beauty of their communities.

Jovial Concepts has opened our doors to Year-Round collaborations with other non-profits, individuals, and like-minded groups to support communities locally and around the world.

Peace Day 2014
September 21st is a day of global non-violence and cease-fire recognized by all UN member states. Each year Jovial Concepts hosts an awareness event inviting Coloradans to think about what peace means to them and educating thousands of people about the simple ways they can get involved in making a better community. Our 2014 Peace Day on the 16th Street Mall included:

- 25 Partnered Non-Profits
- 165 Volunteers
- 8 Hours of live stage time creating dialogues for peace
- 934 Total volunteered hours supporting Peace Day 2014
- 2,100 Peace Day Attendees and Participants

150,000 More people in Colorado know Peace Day exists!
Annual Peace Initiative Contest

2014 Winner - $5,000

Jovial Concepts empowers the winners by providing project funding and support!

Entries contain ideas to transform our local and global communities through art, music, education, infrastructure, media, environment, and more.

The Teaching Peace Initiative is a student-led, student-run nonprofit organization that works to bring comprehensive peace education to students across the country and the world. They organize teens to teach peace curricula to young children in their communities.

Jovial Futures
Equal Opportunities for all of our youth
Jovial Concepts supports the future of low-income and at-risk youth in our community by providing them with the skills and experiences necessary to achieve success.

We discover student's passions, team them up with a mentor who shares their interests, and offer volunteer opportunities, internships, and more. By age 18, youth in our program will have improved academically, applied for scholarships, worked in their community, and embarked on a path of success.

The Jovial Gardens project has been developed to provide education in healthy and sustainable living, to create accessibility to high quality food for those in need, and to unify communities around the common goal of creatively increasing resource independence. 25% of families with kids in Colorado cannot afford food, and we are helping to end hunger in our community by transforming lawns into edible gardens.
